YURTS & TIPIS

LOG CABIN

Welcome to LARKHILL YURTS & TIPIIS

This is a portal to another time

Where it always rains

And it always shines

Where the green is the lushest green

you've ever seen

It is a place that only sparkles

When you are in it.

Where the slugs and the rain and the mud and the birds are never timid.

And they aren't the only ones

My dears

who are here to say hello.

Oh no -

There are mushroom rings
and moths with wings
and other
not-so-obvious things,
who all have secret messages for you.

They whisper for you to:

Give a hurrah for the rain!
(for giving us a free shower)

And a 'ya-hoo!' for the loo
(for your poo will nourish the bower)

Stick your finger in the earth
And your foot in the stream
Your bum on the grass
And your nose in a sunbeam

And most of all,
listen listen closely
to the trees.

They know what we need,
and they want the best for you.

Now, perhaps this is a day when you would like a little more inspiration to play?

If so - let's go!
I think I have a way...

HAVE YOU NOTICED THE STONE CIRCLES?

THEY LOOK LIKE THIS....

This one is a LABYRINTH

Do you know what a labyrinth means?

There are many different labyrinths in the world

They reflect life.

Life is a maze we walk through.

There are 24 stones!

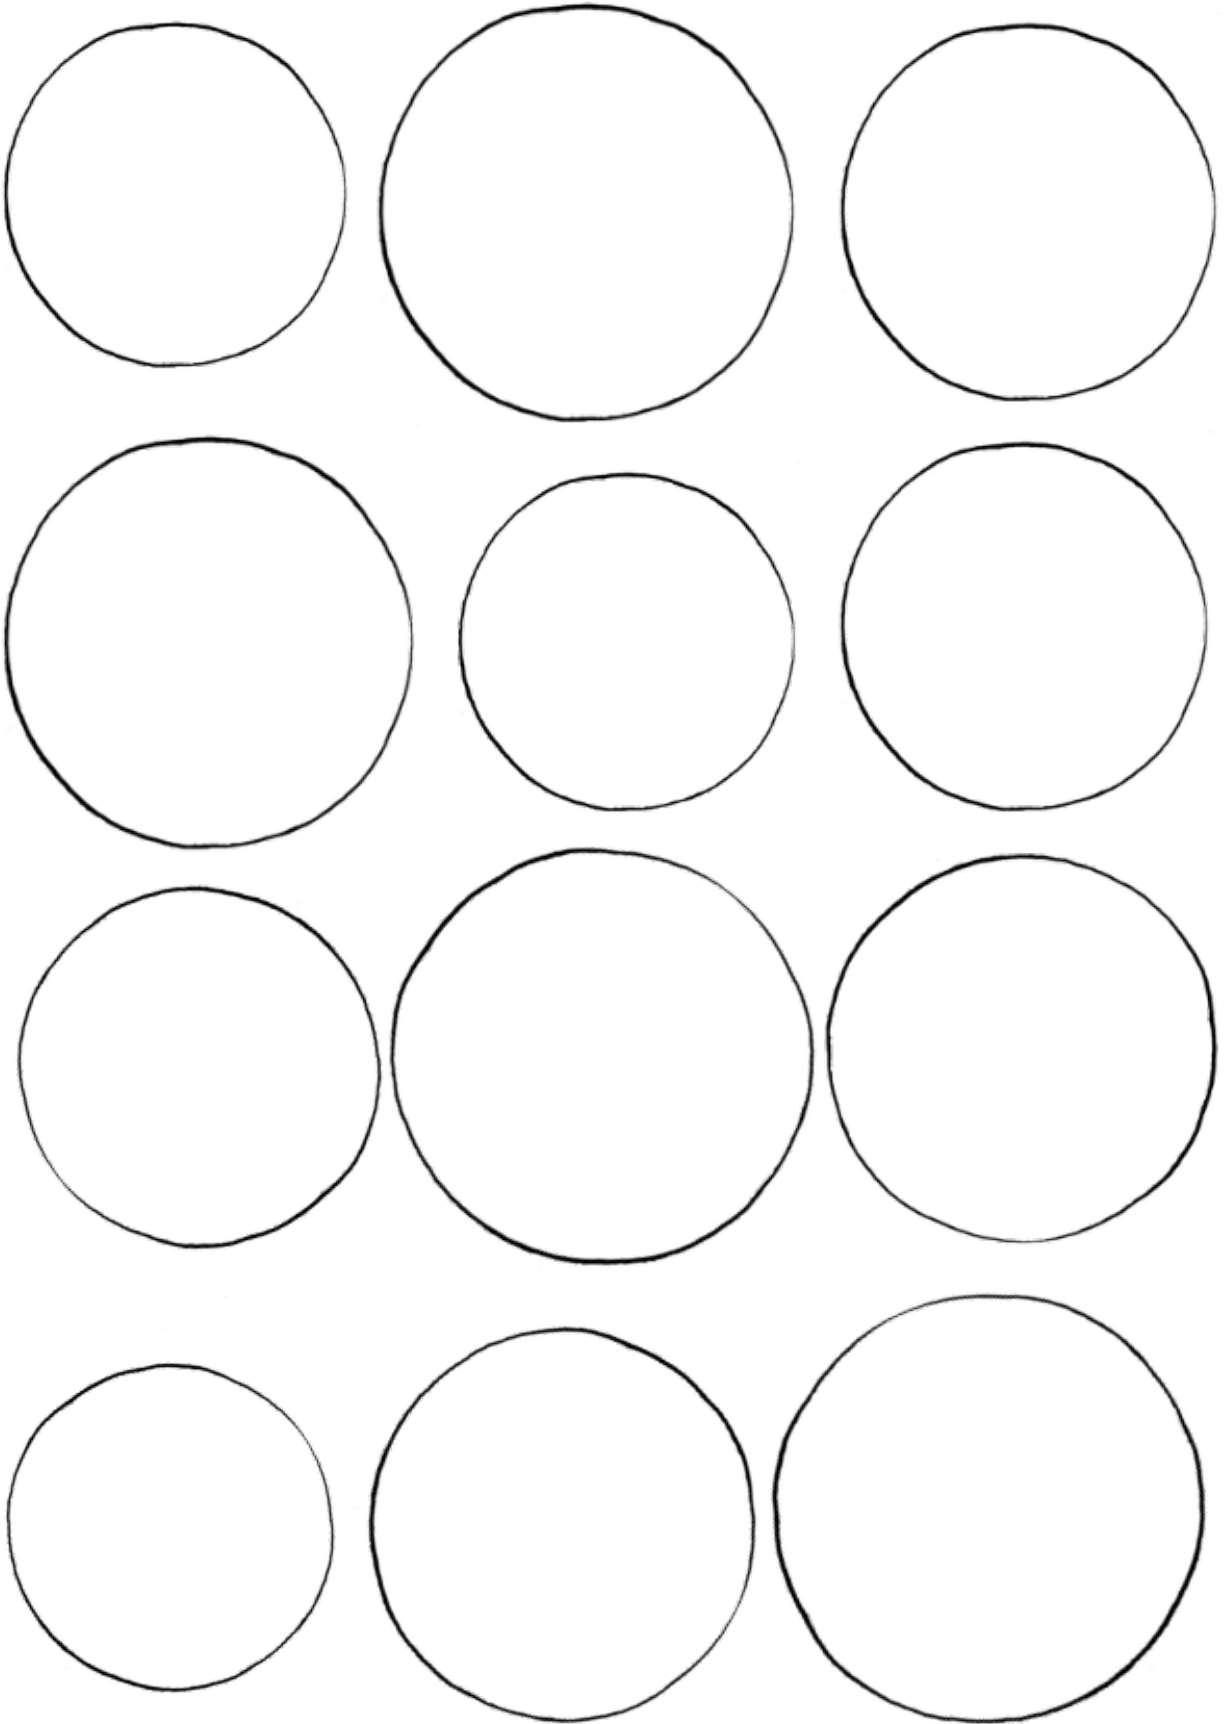

How many can you find?

Draw them out!

Count them up!

How do they connect to each other?

You want to Know the answer?

This is what I got...

How about you?!

This activity pack could be expanded to delve into the meaning of the symbols on the stones, where they came from, what cultures they represent, the messages they carry...

Also thinking about a SELF CARE pack aimed at adults who would like some guided reflection / journaling activities around the site - if you think your customers would go for that kind of thing?
